

Waltz of the Yukon

Celebrate 65

Words & Music: Al Oster

The Waltz of the Yu-kon blows thru the trees.

Lis-ten to the mu-sic of the wind in the leaves. It tells of the beau-ty as it blows a-cross the land, The Waltz of the Yu-kon played by na-ture's own hand. It whis-pers the the beau-ty of the lakes and the streams. So touched by the beau-ty of the cry-stal white snow, It tells how the rich-ness of the blues and the greens, It tells of the star-light sets the hea-vens a-glow, It tells of the se-cret the north-ern lights hold, The Waltz of the beau-ty as it blows a-cross the land, The Waltz of the Yu-kon they're danc-ing I'm told. Yu-kon played by na-ture's own hand.
