2014 Camp WTA Tent Rising Week

We all want to see the sun rise from the Bluff in 2014, so please help out!

There are loads of fun projects to do at WTA to get the camp ready for all of us to use this spring and summer. This year the Property Committee is hoping to provide opportunities for everyone to get involved and get some Camping Equipment Training towards your OAL \(Outdoor Activity Leadership\).

Saturday, May 10: Clean Up

The first steps into the camp are always fun! Teams of volunteers are sent to each site to shake the winter away. Armed with gloves, brooms & washcloths, the sites are opened, shined up and stocked with the required items for campers to use. A list of issues requiring further maintenance at each site is created.

May 10 to 16: Maintenance

Changing floorboards, small carpentry jobs, small electrical jobs (licensed electrician required), small plumbing jobs, and many more projects. Once the list of projects is prepared, we hope that you can volunteer your time, or a friend's, during the week to get things in shape.

Tent Pitching 101:

With the sites and marquees ready, we need to get our tents up. We are inviting you to join us at camp to pitch our tents and help with final repairs. If you have never pitched a WTA tent, you really do want to learn how. It is a very satisfying "Team Project". We will have trainers on site to offer the OAL Tent Module to anyone interested.

Please RSVP as soon as you can to: qcpropertycommittee@gmail.com. When are you available? What can you help with? (tents, clean-up, maintenance...) Questions can also be sent to this e-mail address. We look forward to seeing many of you on Saturday, May 10.

Please pay it forward—we all love WTA!

Weekend at Wa-Thik-Ane for Guiders

Are you interested in a fun camping weekend for Guiders at Wa-Thik-Ane? This would be a way for you to hone your camp skills, share your ideas, and learn some new tricks while enjoying a weekend at camp in tents with adults. This will take place June 13-15.

The cost is $75.00 (65.23 + 3.26 GST + 6.51 PST). Before we go any further with detailed planning, we would like to know if enough people are interested. Please complete the registration form to express your intent and send it to info@guidesquebec.ca. Your payment will not be processed until we know for certain that we have enough people attending. The firm deadline is April 30, 2014.

Call Out—Camping station at Festi-Guides

The Provincial Camping Committee is looking for volunteers to help plan and organize a camp station for Festi-Guides on Saturday, May 10 in Rosemère.

Symposium Survey Results

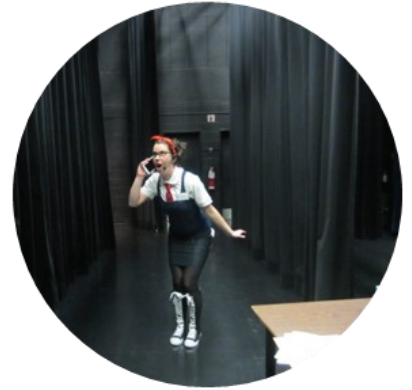

Symposium 2014 – Here is What You Had to Say!

Overall Experience

Very Satisfied/Satisfied – 92%
Somewhat Satisfied – 8%

Workshop Experience

90% - Found it active and engaging
88% - Provided me with useful new ideas
78 % - Inspired me to try new approaches

Your Comments:

Liked focus on how to include girls in meetings – practical advice and strategies

Guest Speaker – Excellent – Relevant Loved it – Too short

Thought the day flowed well – more time for sharing and less on running from place to place

Some Symposium FAQs:

Why Champlain College instead of a venue on the island of Montreal?

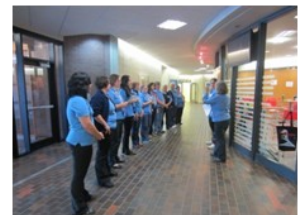

A wide variety of venues have been looked at on island but none had ease of access to classrooms, auditorium and cafeteria. Free parking and public transit are also a consideration. The price that Champlain College offers including the lunch is not matched by others. Some venues did not have a suitable location at no charge for coffee break.

Why in January?

Other times of the year have been considered. It takes about 40 volunteers to make this event 'happen'. Due to the very hectic fall we could not have this number of volunteers available. Many of the volunteers who work at the symposium also work at Fall Camp. February and March are risky due to the impact of school winter/spring breaks. April is too late in the year as the symposium is intended to inspire us with regard to the second half the year. Also, in April and May units are completing their year and preparing for year end events and parties. Hence – we have chosen January for the past three years.

Why such a limited selection for lunch?

At Champlain College, as at all other venues we looked at, we must use the food service provider that is contracted at the venue. In order to not charge for the symposium and keep the lunch affordable, the menu has to be limited to keep within our budget.

Have you seen the latest from 50 Objects of Guiding?

"A penguin sitting on a camp blanket represents Guiding to us. The camp blanket, like a Girl Guide, is warm and fuzzy. It shows challenges successfully accomplished and is easy to share. Penguins are unique—they dive and swim - Girl Guides have many skills the average girl doesn't. Penguins dress to impress and survive in harsh conditions, and just like Girl Guides make friends forever—penguins mate for life. Finally, just like sticky snow, Canadian girl Guides stick together!"

QC Spin Stories

Sparks in Pointe-Claire—QC Spinning the World!

AND the Wheels on the Bus! (with help from their friendly neighbourhood Rangers!)

The world: For Thinking Day 2014 the Pointe-Claire Sparks wanted to learn about Girl Guides in other countries. With the local Ranger unit, the Sparks started to brainstorm. They came up with a wonderful idea: they first started to learn about the four World Centres.

Invent: Then they decided they wanted to travel to as many countries as they could. So they invented a Girl Guide bus that could take them to these countries.

The girls had to bring in fruit from another country, find that country on the map and also find the flag of that country. We also tried to find the uniforms!

Once they had done this, the bus took them on a wonderful journey to find the countries.

And here they share it with YOU!

A highlight is always the recognition of some of our Guiders at the end of the evening. This year we recognized 11 women in our district for the amazing work they do.

Several small notes this month:

Many thanks to the District Treasurers who turned out on February 15 to help review each other's books. For those of the District Treasurers who did not attend, note that the District Financial Books should have been sent to the office by now!

The Unit and Trefoil Guild books should have been reviewed and the Annual Financial Reports (AFR) and Financial Review Checklists (FRC) should have been sent to the office.

For books which have been reviewed (i.e. Unit books), we don't need copies of spreadsheets sent to the office, just the AFR and FRCs. But remember that you must keep all documentation (including receipts and copies of the spreadsheets etc.) for 7 years!

Clarification: All amounts entered in the spreadsheets are before tax amounts, with the taxes entered separately. I agree, the headers are not clear, but it needs to be done this way so the 'OK' column works. The only exception is in the tax calculators where I think it is obvious that the totals include the taxes. I'll try to make it clearer for next year.

The first batch of Taxation Frequently Asked Questions is up on the website, in the same section as the spreadsheet, on the Forms page. A couple of the big questions still haven't been answered, but they are coming!

The Cookie Tracking Sheet and other cookie forms which were with the financial forms have been moved to the Cookie Resources page of the website.

Don't forget your Canadian World Friendship Fund (CWFF) money! Your district should send a cheque to the provincial office (made out to 'GGC Québec Council'). It should be for all money you have collected if you had a special event or minimum $1.00 per member including adults.

Updates to screening procedures

GGC is now partnering with a company called BackCheck to facilitate police record checks (PRCs) and new members' reference checks. These checks will be done via an online process. In Québec, we have just received some training on the new system and until we confirm our internal processes, here's what this means for Guiders:

- ⇒ PMBRs: Submit an A.1 as usual but do not submit or collect paperwork with regards to PRCs or reference checks. (This is effective immediately.) The provincial office will work directly with the PMBR to complete these elements of screening.
- ⇒ PRC renewals for MBRs and non-MBRs: Continue as usual using the paper PRC form (until further notice).
